

Job Opening: LEL Team member

Base salary range: USD 85,000 – 135,000 per year

🌍 The World Is About to Change. Are You Ready?

🚀 Official Launch: Global Recruitment Begins for the Live Eternal Life (L-E-L) Mission

LU SAFE LLC is proud to be the official recruitment management services provider for a once-in-history transformational program — Live Eternal Life (L-E-L) — under a special S = S (Stakeholders = Shareholders) agreement with the US-registered patent-holding headquarters of the LEL Scientific Research Center (LELSRS).

We are entering a new era.

A groundbreaking 17-year scientific research and development mission begins now — with one year dedicated to the recruitment and advanced training of 100+ global team members in the field of AI, neuroscience, consciousness, and life sciences.

🧠 No university degree required.

👉 Background doesn't matter.

We welcome everyone: engineers, poets, doctors, janitors, farmers, software developers, teachers, inventors, students, soldiers, or those who feel disconnected from society — if your mindset aligns, you are invited.

💼 Salary & Benefits

All successfully hired candidates will be offered:

A competitive compensation and benefits package

Base salary range: USD 85,000 – 135,000 per year, depending on the role and category (to be revealed after shortlisting)

Access to cutting-edge training, intellectual resources, and innovation hubs

Opportunity to work on one of the most meaningful missions in human history

🌐 How to Apply

This is not a typical job. To be shortlisted, you must complete a unique 21-question yes/no AI-filtered test — a mindset filtration model designed with cutting-edge AI. It cannot be manipulated or cheated, not even by GPT-4. Your responses will determine whether you qualify to proceed.

📄 Submit your answers through this form:

👉 <https://lnkd.in/d2kwpgPt>

🕒 The form will remain open for a limited time while we collect applications globally. Shortlisted applicants will be privately notified for the next round of alignment, orientation, and onboarding.

🔒 Please note:

- You won't know which answers were right or wrong.
- You may only apply once — make it count.
- Fake information will lead to permanent disqualification.
- This is a call for those who dare to think beyond death.
- This is not science fiction — this is the beginning of forever.
- Live Eternal Life.
- Become part of something humanity has never seen before.
